CHECK OUT THE NEW AND IMPROVED EASTVIEW PARK

The City completed improvements at this 9.9 acre park located on Westmont Avenue, just east of Western Avenue, in October 2012. The most noticeable upgrade (certainly for children) is the safe and accessible playground which encourages creative play and helps promote balance and coordination for children ages 5 to 12. In addition, new play equipment has been installed for children ages 2 to 5. Restrooms were not only renovated to comply with federal accessibility requirements, but were also significantly upgraded with the installation of energy efficient water and power fixtures and enhanced landscaping around the building. The parking lot was also reconfigured and resurfaced. This project was partially funded by the Los Angeles County Regional Parks and Open Space District and the Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe. Stop by and check out the great results yourself the next time you're in the neighborhood!

ELECTRICAL OUTLET SAFETY

Did you know that according to U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission data, seven children per day are injured by contact with electrical outlets? Children can stick any number of items into unprotected outlets, most often keys or hairpins. This can cause injuries such as first or second degree electrical burns. Some electrical outlet shocks can even be fatal. It's hard to prevent small children from being curious about the outlets; however, there are several measures that can be taken to minimize the hazard:

- Tamper Resistant Outlets: They look like regular outlets, but have plastic shutters behind the face that remain closed until a plug is inserted. A child would have to stick two objects into the vertical outlet slots at the same time to defeat the protection. These are considered the safest option for electrical outlet safety, as they are permanent and automatic.

- Complete Outlet Covers: These cover the complete outlet face and cover the ends of the plugged-in cords, keeping the entire outlet area safe.
- Tamper Resistant Face Outlet Covers: These can be retrofitted over existing outlets. These are full cover plates that employ a swivel or slide to expose the outlet slots.
- Plastic Outlet Protectors: These are caps which have prongs that fit directly into the outlet slots. These are the easiest and least expensive protection; although some children can figure out how to remove them, and often they may be misplaced or not reinserted after the outlet is used.

THE STORY BEHIND THE LOGO

You see it on City letterhead. You see it on City park signs, flyers, certificates and envelopes. You see it on this newsletter. You see it above your heads on street signs and below your feet on welcome mats at City facilities.

You may not always notice it, but the City of Rancho Palos Verdes logo is all around us. Forty years ago, however, when Rancho Palos Verdes was incorporated, the fledgling City did not have a logo. In fact, the City did not have an official logo until 1978, five years after incorporation.

Tom Hollingsworth, a professional graphic designer, who was active in the City's founding and later served as a City Councilmember and Mayor, was enlisted to design a logo. Working with a City Council Logo Subcommittee consisting of himself, then Mayor Ken Dyda and Councilmember and future Mayor Ann Shaw, Tom spent weeks preparing graphic designs which entailed the creation of hundreds of preliminary color sketches.

Using the same blue and green elements he employed for a Save our Coastline (SOC) Fourth City campaign logo in 1972, Tom stylistically captured the close interaction of land and sea in

RANCHO PALOS VERDES: READ ALL ABOUT US

In today's information age, data needs to be available at the click of a mouse and downloadable to a smart phone. With all of the recent stories in the media about city and state government bodies in poor financial condition—with some even in legal turmoil—the City of Rancho Palos Verdes strives for full transparency with respect to public information, including the wages and benefits received by City employees and elected officials.

Since late 2010, a section of the City website prominently displays a variety of links to compensation information for Rancho Palos Verdes and other California cities and state agencies. This information is available by clicking on an icon on the website's homepage sliding bar titled "Employee Compensation." The website address is <http://www.palosverdes.com/rpv/citymanager/content/employee-compensation.cfm>.

The State Controller's Office, in response to well-publicized municipal scandals such as the City of Bell, mandates significant reporting of municipal compensation data. The City of Rancho Palos Verdes is proud to go beyond those extensive requirements.

Information and links on the Employee Compensation webpage includes required data sent to the State Controller's Office covering the years 2009-2011. The City also submitted a 2011 report to the State Controller with even greater detail than what is required. This expanded report includes comprehensive salary and benefit information for each City employee and Councilmember.

The City's website also includes the following links:

ROAD WORK AHEAD

The Public Works Department is currently implementing the residential streets improvement project for several neighborhoods bordering Hawthorne Blvd, Palos Verdes Drive West, and Silver Spur Rd, also known as Maintenance Areas 3 and 5. The work will be conducted in two main phases: (1) the initial preparatory work, which includes localized full-depth asphalt repair (for damage due to tree root intrusion and other causes), crack sealing, sidewalk repair, curb and gutter repair, update of ADA-accessible curb ramps, and replacement and updating of traffic signage and (2) the street resurfacing and roadway striping. Barring any unforeseen circumstances, the work will be performed between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday – Friday (excluding City holidays), and is anticipated to continue into the summer of 2013.

Residents will be notified in advance when access to their streets will be limited by the road work. While every effort is being made to minimize the impacts of this construction work, the Public Works Department appreciates the continued patience and cooperation of the community with any inconveniences experienced during the construction period. Project status updates can be obtained by visiting the project's website at <http://palosverdes.com/rpv/publicworks/> or by calling the Public Works Department at 310-544-5252.

THE STORY BEHIND THE LOGO

Rancho Palos Verdes, using a swooping R to both illustrate the coastline and bluff topography, while also cleverly invoking the first letter of the City's first name. He described the logo's coastline as evocative of the spectacular view he enjoyed from the backyard of his Ladera Linda area home. Tom noted in a 2001 City Newsletter article that, "I explored graphic elements that would deal with history, the unique, unspoiled rugged coastline, vast open space resources, the quiet lifestyle and the promises afforded by a newly-created City carved out of neglected county land."

The design process was not without some controversy at the time. A 1978 PV NEWS article noted that there was support among some Councilmembers for including the Swinging Heart brand which was the mark of the Rancho de Los Palos Verdes cattle ranch, after it was registered by the Sepulveda family in 1839. There were even tongue-in-cheek letters to the editor that the proposed new logo closely resembled the Robinson's Department store logo. Early conceptual designs did feature a lighthouse or the Swinging Heart brand in the logo's green section, but the City Council eventually approved the current version on March 21, 1978.

Tom picked the colors "ocean blue" and "spring green" to give the logo a contemporary feel and to symbolize the area's natural resources. Ever the perfectionist, Tom could not find an appropriate, commercially available typeface for the words "Rancho Palos Verdes" to be paired with the logo on City stationery. Instead, he devised a custom alphabet typeface known as "Rancho Contempo." Tom produced modified versions of the logo for significant community events including the City's 25th, 30th and 35th anniversaries.

Sadly, Tom Hollingsworth passed away in late 2012. His passion and dedication to the City was boundless, and that community spirit and abiding love for the Peninsula's beauty lives on in the simple and elegant strokes and colors of the City's ubiquitous and timeless logo.

On November 20, 2012, the City Council approved discontinuing the NBGs and instead approved issuing a recycling rebate to residential customers of EDCO and UWS for a total amount of $296,000. The individual ratepayer credit amount will be finalized in the coming months.
