Hatano Farm Award Nomination Update

In January 2024, the City Council approved a request from the City's historic research consultant, Historic Resources Group, to nominate the successful Hatano Farm state historic designation for a 2024 Los Angeles Conservancy Preservation Award.

Established in 1953 on a hillside located at what is today the Ken Dyda Civic Center, Hatano Farm is the last vestige of the tradition of Japanese American truck farming that once dominated the Palos Verdes Peninsula. The State Historical Resources Commission voted unanimously in January 2023 to designate the farm as a California Point of Historical Interest and for listing on the California Register of Historical Resources.

Each year, the Los Angeles Conservancy, a nonprofit historic preservation organization, showcases outstanding achievements in historic preservation throughout the county. Winners of the 2023 Preservation Awards included the preservation and restoration of the Hollywood Sign, the listing of the Carthay Neighborhoods Historic District on the National Register of Historic Places, the restoration of the Downtown L.A. Proper Hotel, and the City of Long Beach's Suburbanization and Race Historic Context Statement, to name a few.

Staff was recently informed that although the City submitted a strong application, it was not selected for an award. The City thanks HRG for its hard work on the submittal and hopes to resubmit in a future call for nominations. Plans for a permanent plaque at Hatano Farm recognizing the state historic designation and for future use of the farm site will be presented to the City Council at a future meeting.

Legislation Corner

On March 19, the City Council will deliberate on extending the City's agreement with Rene Public Policy Group (RPPG) until February 28, 2025. RPPG plays a vital role in advocating for the City's defined positions outlined in the Legislative Platform with legislators.

In alignment with the 2024 Legislative Platform adopted in December 2023, RPPG has crafted a priority bill list, which comprises significant legislation that directly impacts the community. This list, alongside a repository of reports provided by RPPG, is accessible on the City website. California Tsunami Preparedness Week

March 23-31 is 2024 California Tsunami Preparedness Week. The City encourages beachgoers, visitors, and residents who live near the City's coastline to practice tsunami awareness by accessing life-saving preparedness information to support California's Tsunami Preparedness Week - a statewide campaign.

Everyone who lives, works, or plays near the coastline should know how to protect themselves from a tsunami. Tsunamis are large ocean waves generated by major local or distant earthquakes or major landslides in the ocean. Ocean waves, ranging from several feet or much larger, can strike the coast with devastating force. Tsunamis can occur here in Southern California and impact the Peninsula and surrounding cities.

Tsunami Hazard Area maps available on the state's tsunami website illustrate how a tsunami could impact our coastline using new data and modeling developed over the past ten years, using lessons learned from the 2011 Tōhoku region event coupled with new tsunami hazard information and mapping tools. Easy-to-use interactive web applications now reflect that some areas of our coastline may have a higher tsunami hazard than previously represented in prior hazard maps.

Tsunamis can be catastrophic in the short and long term, affecting millions of people over wide geographical areas up to thousands of miles away from the source. Any member of the public can take these immediate preparedness steps to keep themselves, their families, and loved ones safe in the event of a tsunami:

- Take a “tsunami walk” with your family, friends, and loved ones; get to know your zone and be alert when at work, home or playing near the ocean.
- Create a personal tsunami evacuation plan. For more information on individual tsunami hazards and preparations, review the California Tsunami Preparedness Guide, which explains how you can be tsunami ready.
- Next time you visit a local beach area for fun, work, or exercise, be on the lookout for local tsunami preparedness signage and identify a safe evacuation area and evacuation routes to get to higher ground quickly.
- Network with your neighbors prior to an emergency. Work together to help horse/large pet owners on your street who do not have horse trailers or who are not home during an emergency.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS TIPS

Common Fire Hazards in the Home

Fire can spread rapidly through your home, leaving you as little as one or two minutes to escape safely once the smoke alarm sounds. Unfortunately, many fires start in the house and can potentially be deadly for you or your family. Your entire household must know what to do in the event of a personal home fire so everyone can safely remove themselves from the house as quickly and efficiently as possible.

In just two minutes, a fire can become life-threatening. In five minutes, a residence can be engulfed in flames. The causes of these fires can range from candles left burning to unattended food in the kitchen. Knowing where and when fires are most likely to ignite can help you protect yourself, your family, and your home from tragedy.

- Kitchen fires: Unattended cooking is the leading cause of kitchen fires and fire-related injuries. Keep an eye on the stove, oven, and other appliances, such as toaster ovens, and move combustible items away from the stove. Stay in the kitchen when frying, grilling, or broiling food. If you leave the kitchen for even a short period, turn off the stove.
- Portable space heaters: Keep anything that gives off heat at least 3 feet away from flammable materials or items. Never plug more than one heating appliance into an outlet. Buy only heaters evaluated by a nationally recognized laboratory, such as Underwriters Laboratories (UL). Check to make sure the portable heater has a thermostat control mechanism and will switch off automatically if the heater falls over. Keep portable gas generators outside and away from windows to avoid carbon monoxide poisoning.
- Electrical safety: Replace all worn, old, or damaged appliance cords immediately, and do not run cords under rugs or furniture. If an appliance has a three-prong plug, use it only in a three-slot outlet. Never force it to fit into a two-slot outlet or extension cord. Immediately shut off, then professionally replace light switches that are hot to the touch and lights that flicker. Don't overload circuits or outlets.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

- Candles: Blow out all candles when you leave the room or go to bed. Avoid using candles in the bedroom and other areas where people may fall asleep. Keep candles out of the reach of children and pets. Do not place lighted candles where children, pets, or anyone else can knock them over. Never burn a candle on or near anything that can catch fire. Keep burning candles away from furniture, drapes, bedding, carpets, books, paper, flammable decorations, etc. Put candle holders on a sturdy, uncluttered surface. Light candles carefully. Keep your hair and any loose clothing away from the flame. Don't burn a candle all the way down — put it out before it gets too close to the holder or container. Have flashlights and battery-powered lighting ready to use during a power outage.

- Laundry rooms: Don't overload your washer or dryer or pack items down. Instead, leave room for laundry to tumble. Follow your machine manufacturer's recommendations for capacity. Clean the lint screen and drum between loads to prevent buildup. About once a year, clean the dryer exhaust vent and ducts. Replace plastic venting material with flexible metal venting material. Ensure that your appliances are plugged into outlets with the proper voltage.

Every Second Counts:
Plan 2 Ways Out!

How fast does fire move? Very fast. You could have less than 2 minutes to get out safely once the smoke alarm sounds.

7 steps to practicing your escape plan

- 1 Draw a map of your home. Include all doors and windows.
- 2 Find two ways out of every room.
- 3 Make sure doors and windows are not blocked.
- 4 Choose an outside meeting place in front of your home.
- 5 Push the test button to sound the smoke alarm.
- 6 Practice your drill with everyone in the home.
- 7 Get outside to your meeting place.

Celebrating a Safer Rancho Palos Verdes: Crime Rates Decline

Recent crime data for Rancho Palos Verdes unveils a promising trend that underscores the concerted efforts towards community safety. Over the years, the City has witnessed a notable decrease in both property and violent crimes, reflecting a positive shift in its security landscape.

Analyzing the statistics from 1985 to 2023, the data reveals a consistent decline in total Part I crimes. In 1985, the total stood at 751 incidents, gradually dropping to 365 by 2023. This five-year running average depicted in the dashed blue line is a remarkable downward trajectory, showcasing a vigilant community's commitment to curbing criminal activities.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

Delving deeper into the numbers, property crimes have significantly decreased over the years, from 674 incidents in 1985 to 326 in 2023. Likewise, violent crimes have also shown a steady decline, with 77 incidents in 1985 compared to 39 in 2023.

Noteworthy is the community's resilience in maintaining this downward trend despite occasional fluctuations. From a 5.8% decrease in 1989 to a 28% decline in 2021, Rancho Palos Verdes has consistently worked toward creating a safer environment for its residents. Comparing 2022-2023, Rancho Palos Verdes saw a 17.6% decline in Part 1 Crimes.

This positive momentum can be attributed to a range of factors, including robust law enforcement strategies, active community engagement, and the implementation of innovative crime prevention measures, including the automated license plate-reading (ALPR) camera and neighborhood camera network. Additionally, the collective vigilance of residents and businesses has played a pivotal role in deterring criminal behavior and fostering a sense of security.

As we celebrate these encouraging statistics, let us remain steadfast in our commitment to safeguarding our community. Together, we can build upon this progress and ensure that Rancho Palos Verdes continues to thrive as a safe and welcoming place for all.

Consumer Price Index – February 2024

In February, the Consumer Price Index (CPI) rose by 0.4%, following a 0.3% increase in January. This was mainly driven by higher prices for shelter and gasoline, which together contributed to over 60% of the overall monthly increase. Over the past year, prices went up by 3.2%, slightly more than the 3.1% increase seen in the 12 months ending January.

Core inflation, which excludes food and energy prices, also rose by 0.4% in both February and January. The monthly increase was largely influenced by higher shelter costs. Over the last 12 months, core inflation went up by 3.8%, with shelter costs accounting for about two-thirds of this increase. Other notable increases over the year include motor vehicle insurance, medical care, recreation, and personal care.

Consumer Price Index – Los Angeles Area

Prices in the Los Angeles area rose by 0.5% over the past month. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, the February increase was driven by higher costs for shelter and medical care. Over the past year, CPI rose by 3.4%, well above the 2.5% increase observed in the 12 months ending January.

Core CPI rose by 0.4% in February and was also impacted by the higher costs for shelter and medical care. Over the year, core inflation rose by 3.8%, mainly due to the annual increases in shelter and medical care expenses. However, prices for new and used vehicles, as well as household furnishings and operations, have decreased compared to a year ago, which partly offset the overall increases in this category. Nevertheless, core prices have yet to fall significantly below the all-items index.

REMINDER: Housing Element and Rezoning Virtual Open House Available Through March 19

The City is currently hosting a virtual open house to provide updates on the Housing Element. Over the past few years, the City of Rancho Palos Verdes has been working on its 6th Cycle Housing Element update, a state-mandated process that all California cities undertake every eight years (or “cycles”) to demonstrate how they will meet future housing needs, which in the case of the City of Rancho Palos Verdes includes 647 housing units.

The virtual open house also includes information regarding the required rezoning effort to accommodate the targeted housing units throughout the City during the 6th housing cycle, including information on the preparation of the Mixed-Use Overlay District (MUOD) and Residential Overlay District (ROD). To learn more about the process and to share feedback, please visit the City's website at rpvca.gov/housingelement in order to join the Virtual Open House. The Virtual Open House will be available through March 19. If you have questions or would like to share your comments, please email them to housingelement@rpvca.gov.

Special Use Permit Request for Catalina View Gardens at the Point View Property

Staff received a request for a Special Use Permit (Case No. PLSU2024-0001) for the property at 6001 Palos Verdes Drive South to allow for the operation of up to an additional 50 wedding ceremonies annually for the 2024 and 2025 calendar years in the event garden associated with the Point View Master Use Plan Conditional Use Permit (Case No. ZON2010-00087). Additional requests include a) the expansion of event garden operational hours from 6 p.m. up to 7 p.m.; and b) the use of amplified noise in the ceremony lawn in coordination with the additional requested ceremonies. The permit request will accommodate wedding ceremonies that were displaced as part of the unexpected closure of the Wayfarers Chapel due to the unprecedented land flow in the Greater Portuguese Bend Landslide Complex.

A public notice \(PDF\) will be issued on March 14 to collect public comments regarding the proposed project. Comments will be received through March 29. For questions or to share comments, please feel free to contact Deputy Director of Community Development, Octavio Silva at 310-544-5234 or via email at octavios@rpvca.gov.

Residential Structure Fire Update

The City's Building and Safety Division received a report of a residential structure fire that took place over the weekend on Crest Road. Upon inspection of the site, it was reported that the fire started in the crawlspace of the home, which resulted in the damage of several floor joists, a composite deck, and several broken windows. While there is heavy smoke damage throughout the home, areas of the structure remain habitable, as damaged areas have been sectioned off. The residents plan to relocate during the repair and renovation of the damaged areas.

March Issue of Turtle Talk Now Available

The March issue of Turtle Talk is now available and includes updates about the South Bay's Local Travel Network (LTN), including regional transportational projects such as the City of El Segundo's use of neighborhood electric vehicles. As a reminder, Turtle Talk is a monthly e-blast with updates and news about the LTN, which is produced by the South Bay Cities Council of Governments (SBCCOG). The LTN is a proposed 243-mile network of existing, low-speed routes designed to accommodate low-speed vehicles (i.e. e-bikes and e-scooters). A copy of this month's Turtle Talk is available on the SBCCOG website.

RECREATION AND PARKS DEPARTMENT

Whale of a Day Bookmark Contest

The City of Rancho Palos Verdes and Los Serenos de Point Vicente invite kids grades TK-5 to use their creativity to create an ocean-themed bookmark in celebration of Whale of a Day. Artists can use crayons, colored pencils or markers using a template available for download. Entries are due March 22.

The 39th annual Whale of a Day will take place on April 13 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Point Vicente Lighthouse grounds will be open again for tours. The event will have plenty of fun for everyone, including live music, children's activities, a silent auction, a raffle, beer and wine, food trucks, and more.

Check out whaleofaday.com for more information about the bookmark contest and Whale of a Day. Free parking and shuttle service will be located at the Ken Dyda Civic Center at 30940 Hawthorne Boulevard.

Docent-Led Tour at Ladera Linda Community Park

Los Serenos de Point Vicente led 75 fifth graders from Vista Grande Elementary School on a tour of Ladera Linda Community Park. This was the first docent tour of the recently reopened facility. Despite the unfortunate closure of the Forrestal Reserve, students enjoyed an improvised tour of the building and grounds including many natural artifacts and displays highlighting the fauna and flora of the Palos Verdes Peninsula. The students were excited to receive giveaways from recreation Staff including sunglasses, plants, and frisbees.

The Easter Basket is Officially Full

The annual egg hunt extravaganza being held on March 30 at the Ken Dyda Civic Center from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. is sold out. Almost 100 lucky participants will enjoy inflatables, a petting zoo, bunny photo ops, and an egg-citing fabulous egg hunt.

Eastview Dog Park Temporary Closure

Due to turf maintenance, Eastview Dog Park, including both the large and small dog enclosures, closed on February 15 for approximately 6 weeks. Temporary enclosures will not be available. However, the Rancho Caninos Dog Park at the Ken Dyda Civic Center will remain fully open daily from one hour before sunrise to one hour after sunset.

If you have any questions, please contact the Recreation and Parks Department at parks@rpvca.gov 310-544-5260.

REACH Update

The REACH program serves the social and recreational needs of youths and adults with developmental disabilities and is back at Hesse Park for in-person activities.

To RSVP for REACH activities or if you have questions, please email reach@rpvca.gov.

An Educational Evening With REACH

On March 6, REACH participants spent the evening getting to know local wildlife a little bit better at Deane Dana Friendship Park and Nature Center. Nature Center staff gave us a tour of the exhibit where we learned about the local fauna. There were many live snakes as well as displays of butterflies and local animals. The biologist on site even let us meet their resident falcon. We love getting the chance to learn something new here at REACH.

Animal Adoption Event

No green kitty cats, but your Irish eyes will be smiling at Pedro Pet Pals' St. Patrick's Day-themed adoption event this weekend! The cat bus will be shamrocking and rolling into the Ken Dyda Civic Center on March 16 and March 17 from 12-3 p.m., filled to the broguish brim with furry meowers eager to be adopted. You won't need a four-leaved clover to be one of the leprechauns lucky enough to go home with one of these four-legged feline cuties. Better than a pot of gold any day.
