Bohannon Lecture Series October 2022

Wednesdays, 10:30am, Fred Hesse Park, in RPV, or as noted.

October 5: Rancho Palos Verdes Mayor David L. Bradley
Mayor and City Councilman Bradley will present “The State of the City in Today’s Economic Climate.” David Bradley has been mayor since 2019, and has focused on preserving RPV local control, maintaining its semi-rural atmosphere, and land use and development issues. He will share the City’s current business climate, City issues, and future goals in these recessionary times. Hesse Park

October 12: LA Opera Community Educator Mary Johnston
LA Opera’s community educator, Mary Johnston, returns to discuss the new season’s opera Lucia di Lammermoor in her talk “Marriage, Madness and Murder.” This “dramma tragico” by Italian composer Gaetano Donizetti is the tale of Lucia, mourning her mother, tormented by her brother, and sold off into marriage to save the family’s finances. Lucia slips out of sanity as her wedding day approaches – and sees the unthinkable as her only way out. Hesse Park

October 19: Andrea DeKoning, Experiential Marketing Director, Terranea Resort. Andrea will bring “The New Terranea Experience” to our lecture series. She will discuss the upcoming fall and holiday activities at the famous local resort and recent organizational changes which will enhance the Terranea experience for local and visiting guests. Hesse Park

Special Event - October 26: Special Collaboration with the Palos Verdes Art Center at the Art Center, 5504 Crestridge Rd, RPV
Bruce Dalrymple, President of the Gardena High School Art Collection board, will discuss PV Art Center’s exhibition, “Gifted: Collecting the Art of California at Gardena High School, 1919-1956.” He will chronicle the history of the school’s ambitious art endeavor, its effect on the wider cultural scene in Los Angeles, and the mission to conserve, restore and exhibit the collection and preserve its unique history. A tour of the exhibit will follow the presentation.
