Bohannon Lecture Series November 2023

Peninsula Seniors Bohannon Lecture Series, Wednesdays, Scriba Family Center, 10:30-11:30am, 602 Deep Valley Drive, #310, RHE. Coffee Social at 10:15am. Open to the community.

Nov 1: "All Hallows Eve Music"

Ann and Lee Strong, our Peninsula Seniors Music Appreciation instructors, present a special holiday lecture to celebrate evil! They will discuss and survey several pieces of creepy music written for or about Halloween from the 17th through 20th century. The lecture focuses on the three most important themes of "All Hallows Eve," - death, witches, and the devil.

Nov 8: "NASA's Artemis 1 Mission"

William Whittenbury, an astronautical engineer and former NASA Space Launch System Vehicle Integration Intern, presents an in-depth look at the design and development of this space launch system and what's next in this exciting exploration program.

Nov 15: "A History of Railroads in the Greater Los Angeles Area"

Local historian and Peninsula Seniors member, Jim Shneer, provides a comprehensive look into rail transportation that begins with Phineas Banning's construction of the first railroad south of the Tehachapi's in Los Angeles and includes the rise of the big three in the late 19th century, the Pacific Electric story and contemporary rail services.

Nov 22: No Bohannon Lecture Scheduled

Nov 29: Speaker to be Determined
