Item	Presenter(s)
DISCUSSION ITEMS
Declaration of a Local Emergency <ul style="list-style-type: none"> As noted last week, the City Council extended the local emergency declaration and the moratorium. The City Council will discuss the local emergency declaration at the December 19, 2023, meeting to ensure it is addressed prior to the 60-day timeframe. 	Ara Mihranian
Los Angeles County Disaster Management AREA G <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Brandy has been coordinating with the recovery team at OEM. A federal declaration is in place (previous declaration), so the City should be covered under the FEMA reimbursement for recovery of the “winter storm impacts” project(s). The project work must be for short-term recovery work (not preventive work), post winter rains (January through March 2023). Brandy will clarify with the recovery team on dates. Brandy will make sure that the City and OEM are fully informed on the process. Brandy is working with Jesse Villalpando to coordinate between the City and utility companies on contingency and evacuation plans. A meeting is scheduled for next week. The City intends to be prepared for any situation that may happen. The City is coordinating with organizations on housing for displaced residents. ACLAD and KCLAD should be keeping track of and receipts for all mitigations. 	Brandy Villanueva Jesse Villalpando
Preserve Conditions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The City has implemented short-term mitigation measures (tarps and sandbags) prior to last week’s predicted rains. The City cannot enter private property, but has provided supplies for residents. The City is seeing significant movement on several trails. Damaged trails have been closed and are signed. The City is urging all of the public to comply with the closures. The City will continue to update trail maps on their website. There has been significant movement in the Abalone Cove preserve area. Filling fissures are not efficient at this time due to the degree of movement. The HCS Team surveyors will be in the area beginning 11/28/2023 for two weeks and have clearance from the City to be present. 	Dan Trautner Cory Linder Ara Mihranian
Updates on Current, Short-Term, and Long-Term Mitigation Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refer to the spreadsheet “RPV_Landslide_Complex_Working_Group_Project_Tracking.xlsx” 	Ara Mihranian Ramzi Awwad
Geological Update Mike Phipps submitted a memo to the City on 11/22/2023 for Inspiration Point and Cliffside trails. Mike Phipps is working on memo for Pony Trail. The involved geologists will be meeting the week of 11/27/2023 to share information.	Mike Phipps
General Comments/Questions City of Rolling Hills Coordination Updates: The City met with Rolling Hills staff and the community association. The Flying Triangle landslide is seeing some movement. The two cities are coordinating and the City is helping Rolling Hills on storm drainage,	Working Group
