ATTACHED SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS:

- A. Ordinance No. 691 (Page A-1)
- B. June 17, 2025 City Council Staff Report (Page B-1)

BACKGROUND:

On June 17, 2025, Ordinance No. 691 (Attachment A) was introduced by the City Council. This Ordinance proposes to adopt the California Department of Forestry and Fire

Protection's (CalFire) updated 2025 Fire Hazard Severity Zone Map 2025 and to repeal and replace Section 8.08.060 (Very High Fire Hazard Severity Zone Map) of Title 8 of the Rancho Palos Verdes Municipal Code to reflect the updated requirements.

This evening, Ordinance No. 691 is presented for its second reading and consideration of adoption. If adopted, this Ordinance will go into effect on January 1, 2026. Until then, current requirements, including fuel modification, shall remain in full force and effect.

ALTERNATIVES:

In addition to the Staff recommendation, the following alternative actions are available for the City Council's consideration:

1. Identify text modifications to the proposed ordinance language and direct Staff to return at the next available meeting to incorporate comments made to develop and refine the proposed code amendment or to consider adding areas of the City to the Very High Fire Severity Zone.
2. Do not adopt Ordinance No. 691
3. Take other action, as deemed appropriate
4. Take no action.
